

"The bride wore a blue traveling suit of etamine, hat and gloves to match, and carried a shower bouquet of lillies of the valley. Miss Nettie Lawson, sister of the bride, who was maid of honor, was gowned in white mull, wearing a large picture hat, and carried roses.

"The bride is one of the most popular and accomplished ladies of Floyd county, with traits of character as lovely as her winsome person. The groom is a prominent and successful merchant of Halifax, and held in high esteem by the people of that county, where he has lived all his life. He is postmaster at Mount Carmel village, where he conducts a flourishing mercantile establishment."
