Elder Posey G. Lester was a popular and well-loved man. He was a preacher, a writer, a singing master. At the age of 23 he entered the ministry of the Primitive Baptist Church and was one of the most extensively known of its ministers. He traveled and preached in 21 states and Canada, one year covering more than thirteen thousand miles on preaching trips. At the same time he served as pastor of churches in Kentucky and Virginia. He was Moderator of the New River District Primitive Baptist Association, which numbered 26 churches and about 2000 members. For 40 years he was, first, associate editor, then editor-in-chief of Zion's Landmark, a leading church paper of the Primitive Baptist Church, published at Wilson, NC.

He was elected to represent the Fifth District of Virginia in the House of Representatives of the United States Congress and served two terms (1888-1892).

In 1920 he left Floyd County and moved the family to Roanoke where he became pastor of the Primitive Baptist Church there. Many baby boys were named for him.
